

Experience Penn State

with current students during a three-day STAY OVER

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday

March 25, 26, and 27, 2010

University Park

for students from all Penn State campuses

Meet fellow students, world-renowned faculty, and your associate dean!

The Penn State Pre-Vet Club and the Biomedical Sciences Club invite you to experience college life by spending two nights at the Penn State University Park campus.

Club members will host high school seniors with offers of admission to any Penn State campus who have an interest in the following majors:

Animal Sciences (ANSCI)

Immunology and Infectious Disease (IID)

Toxicology (TOX)

Veterinary and Biomedical Sciences (VBSC)

Arrive on March 25 in the afternoon and meet your host. Attend classes on March 26, enjoy social events, and much more. Checkout is on the morning of March 27. For more details on the program and to download the program registration materials, visit:
